

Dear Travel Professional,

At Travel Weekly we recognize that time means money, and we appreciate the importance and value of your time. With so many industry events, conferences and business opportunities presented to you on a regular basis, it can be difficult to decipher which would be the best use of your time away from the office. That's why we created GTM (Global Travel Marketplace), which will take place July 24 - 26, at the Westin Diplomat Resort & Spa in Hollywood / Ft. Lauderdale, FL.

GTM's unique format has been designed to fit your busy travel agency needs and make efficient use of your time. We know that any minute wasted is wasted opportunity and money. And, we know that increasing your knowledge means more money. Every minute spent at GTM will be valuable and you will walk away with an expanded knowledge base that makes you even more valuable to your clients.

Other reasons you should attend GTM:

- Agents selected to participate will be fully hosted (complimentary airfare and hotel accommodations)
- Two and half days to focus EXCLUSIVELY on the growth and development of your business
- Spending quality, face to face time with more than 100 suppliers and industry peers
- Expanding your supplier portfolio to meet the discerning needs of your clients

Only 100 of the top-producing travel agents in North America will be selected to attend GTM. Apply today for this unique and exclusive opportunity to be our guest at this inaugural event so you can truly focus on the growth and development of your business.

We look forward to hosting you at GTM.
